[redacted] apparent lack of knowledge concerning the assignment of investigative jurisdiction under the Act for the Protection of Foreign Officials and Official Guests of the U. S., SA [redacted]

[redacted] who attended the meeting pointed out that the FBI is acting in complete conformance with the instructions of the Office of The Deputy Attorney General, which in December, 1972, advised the then Acting Director that the responsibilities for the Federal investigation of all violations of the Act had been assigned to the FBI. However, such assignment takes cognizance of the potential need for Federal presence in cases where violations of the Act interfere with the conduct of foreign affairs, and in such cases Federal jurisdiction concurrent with that of the several states will be exercised. The then Deputy Attorney General stated that the intent of Congress was clear that the vast bulk of common crimes against protected persons and premises is to continue to be handled by local law enforcement agencies. The then Deputy Attorney General also instructed upon receipt of information indicating a violation or potential violation of the Act, the FBI, after consulting with the Department of State and the appropriate U. S. Attorney, will determine whether Federal presence is warranted and will initiate such investigation as deemed necessary.

It was pointed out to [redacted] that the FBI was acting in concert with its responsibilities and would continue to do so until responsibilities under the Act were changed.

Ambassador Hoffacker indicated that it appeared a meeting between the Departments of State, Justice and the FBI would be beneficial in order that all would understand the responsibilities of this Act. Such a meeting has been arranged for 11 a.m., Wednesday, July 3, 1974, in the Ambassador's Office. No other matter was discussed adversely affecting the FBI.

ACTION:

None. For information. Results of meeting with Ambassador Hoffacker concerning the Act for the Protection of Foreign Officials and Official Guests of the U. S. will be brought to your attention.

It is noted that the Bureau has opposed the formation of any type of consultant experts from the outside to participate in any operational case of ours. We have testified before Chairman Ichord, House Committee on Internal Security, that we favor and are implementing the use of individuals with behavioral science background from within the FBI, but we would oppose such a group from outside the FBI. Also, in testimony before Congressman Ichord, W. Vincent Rakestraw, Assistant Attorney General, testified in opposition of this type proposal.

My memorandum of 7/29/74, which is attached, forwarded copies of letter from James A. F. Kelly, Assistant Director, IACP Research Division, to Ambassador Hoffacker, Cabinet Committee to Combat Terrorism. One of the attached letters was a response to Mr. Kelly's letter and Ambassador Hoffacker was inviting Mr. Kelly to appear before the Working Group of the Cabinet Committee to Combat Terrorism. Notation by Associate Director James B. Adams noted, "To be held 8/7/74 Putman to attend."

It was originally announced that Mr. Kelly would appear before this group on 8/7/74. However, he did not appear on the agenda for this meeting. In all probability, he will appear at a later date.

As the Bureau has a representative at each of these meetings, any appearance by Mr. Kelley will be monitored and pertinent information furnished.
